April 2023

Dear Member,

Well, our Annual Show is now behind us and what a great line up of top-quality birds we had. Congratulations must go to the two major winners with their outstanding birds. Open breeders take note, there is some beginner breeders pushing you for the top spot with some truly excellent birds. Great to see them do so well in the results. Full results appear further in the newsletter. Thanks also to our visitors from Mackay and Frazer Coast.

Please note our April general meeting is the second Friday of the month (14/04/23) due to the first being Good Friday. Rod Vidler will be giving a talk on breeding and showing Spangles and Dominate Pieds at this meeting.

Next event coming up for us is our clubs Young Bird Selection Show held on May the 13th to be held at the bird pavilion Mt Larcom showgrounds. Show schedule appears in this newsletter. Please DO NOT spot your birds for this show, but make sure they are clean (bath if necessary) and free from external and internal parasites. A fortnight later is the QN&C zone selection show. If you have birds selected to go to this selection, please remove the small upper spots but DO NOT remove the big main spots, the carers will dress the birds fully before the Nationals if you are successful in qualifying birds. If in doubt leave alone.

Good luck to everyone trying to qualify birds for the Nationals and after seeing the young birds at our recent show I think there will be quite a few beginner birds qualifying. I urge all members to enter birds even if you think they may not be good enough, let our judges make that decision. It's an honour to get birds to the Nationals.

Enjoy the read.

A Bit of a Rib Tickler

A woman new to the area, while walking to work one morning passed a pet shop with a parrot on a stand out front. As she walked past, the parrot said “Hey lady you’re really ugly”. The lady was a bit shocked but kept walking.

On her way home that afternoon, she again had to pass the pet shop and the parrot again says. “Hey lady you’re really ugly”. She is once again shocked and a bit peeved but keeps walking.

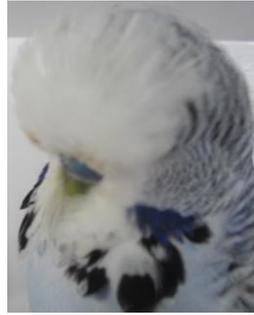

This scenario keeps happening for a couple of days and the lady is getting quite riled about it.

On the fourth morning the lady is again walking to work and the cheeky parrot again utters the words. “Hey lady you’re really ugly”. The lady has had enough by this stage and enters the pet shop and confronts the owner with what the parrot has been saying and states if it happens again she will sue him.

The pet shop owner apologises and assures the lady that the parrot will not say those words again.

That afternoon as the lady walked home and was passing the pet shop the parrot says. “Hey lady”. “What”. Retorts the lady. The parrot replies. “You know”.
